

Dairy & Juice

Zak Sultani

Key Account Manager
at Bega Dairy & Drinks

“By uniting together, we are proud that we are supporting the not for profit sector give back to the community”

Established in 1899, the Bega Group is proudly Australian owned. For more than a century, they have been dedicated to being the leading makers and innovators of great food and drink brands for all Australians to enjoy.

Bega Group have been a CCI supplier for many years, and together have enabled the not for profit community to access a diverse range of Australian owned & made products across a market leading brand portfolio. The Bega Group portfolio includes brands Bega, Dare, Dairy Farmers, Farmers Union, Daily Juice and many more. Bega Group take immense pride in knowing that their work lives in fridges and kitchens of organisations that serve the community. Particularly for Aged Care residents, experiencing familiar brands from home can offer a sense of comfort and nourishment.

Zak shared: "Our commitment to fit-for-purpose quality products and sourcing from Australian farmers enables us to deliver excellence to the community while placing immense importance on giving back to the community."

Find out more:

Visit cciservices.org.au or call 1300 559 318.

